Henderson, NV 89074
Public Call in Number: 1-866-705-2554; Meeting Code: 226691#

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Nevada State Board of Osteopathic Medicine will hold a public hearing to consider potential amendments and removal of various provisions of Nevada Administrative Code (NAC) 633 pursuant to Executive Order 2023-003 issued by Governor Lombardo on January 12, 2023.

On January 12, 2023, Governor Lombardo issued Executive Order 2023-003 by which he directed that the Board review its regulations (NAC Chapter 633) and identify at least ten regulations for removal. The purpose of the hearing is to: (1) vet the Board's recommendations as set out in Attachments A and B; (2) solicit input as to the merits of the Board's recommendations as set out in Attachments A and B; and (3) identify other regulatory changes the attendees feel are worthy of consideration by the Board. A copy of all of the Board's regulations, including those that may be recommended for removal or amendment, is attached as Attachment A. A copy of the text of those regulations identified for potential removal or amendment is attached as Attachment B.

Persons wishing to comment upon the proposed action of the Nevada State Board of Osteopathic Medicine may appear and make oral comment at the scheduled public hearing, or may address their comments, suggestions, recommendations, views, or arguments in written submission to the Nevada State Board of Osteopathic Medicine, attn: Frank DiMaggio, 2275 Corporate Circle, Suite 210, Henderson, Nevada 89074, by fax at (702)732-2079, or by email to osteo@bom.nv.gov. Written submissions must be received by the Nevada State Board of Osteopathic Medicine on or before noon on April 4, 2023. Written submissions should include your full name, contact telephone number and mailing address.

Copies of the notice and the regulations to be considered by the Board, including those that may be considered for amendment or removal, will be available at the Nevada State Board of Osteopathic Medicine, 2275 Corporate Circle, Suite 210, Henderson, Nevada 89074. A copy of this notice and the regulations to be considered by the Board, including those that may be considered for amendment or removal, has been submitted for posting for inspection by members of the public during business hours at the Nevada State Library and Archives, 100 Stewart Street, Carson City, NV 89701. Copies of this notice and regulations to be considered by the Board, including those that may be considered for amendment or removal, will be mailed to members of the public upon request.

This notice and the text of the regulations to be considered by the Board, including those that may be considered for amendment or removal, has been submitted to the State of Nevada Register of Administrative Regulations, which is prepared and published monthly by the Legislative Counsel Bureau pursuant to NRS 233B.0653, and on the Internet at <https://www.leg.state.nv.us/App/Notice/A/>

A copy of this notice and the text of the regulations to be considered by the Board, including those that may be considered for amendment or removal, has been emailed to all key industry stakeholders whose email addresses are registered with the listserv maintained by the Nevada State Board of Osteopathic Medicine, and mailed to all persons who have requested in writing that they be placed upon a mailing list, which is maintained by the Nevada State Board of Osteopathic Medicine for this purpose.

STATE BOARD OF OSTEOPATHIC MEDICINE

NAC 633.100 Compensation and expenses of members. (NRS 633.241, 633.291)

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, the compensation of the members of the Board is $150 for each day spent in the discharge of official duties. While engaged in the business of the Board, each member and employee of the Board is entitled to receive the per diem allowance and travel expenses provided for state officers and employees generally.

2. The Board will, after notifying each of its members, reduce the amount of the compensation, per diem allowance and travel expenses authorized for payment to the members of the Board, if the financial resources of the Board warrant the reduction.

[Bd. of Osteopathic Med., Art. II § 2, eff. 9-15-80] — (NAC A 12-13-91; R154-09, 10-15-2010)

NAC 633.110 Election of officers. (NRS 633.221, 633.291) The Board will elect its officers by a majority vote of the members at a meeting on a date to be fixed by the Board.

[Bd. of Osteopathic Med., Art. II § 1, eff. 9-15-80]

NAC 633.120 Duties of officers. (NRS 633.291)

1. The President is the Chief Executive Officer of the Board and presides at all meetings of the Board. The President represents the Board when it is not in session, signs all papers when authorized by the Board, and performs such other duties as the nature of the office requires and which are assigned to him or her by the Board.

2. If the President is absent or unable to act, the duties of the office devolve upon the Vice President, and if he or she is also absent or unable to act, the duties devolve upon the Secretary-Treasurer.

3. The Executive Director shall:

(a) Keep the books and accounts of the Board and the minutes of the meetings of the Board;
(b) Collect and receive all money belonging to the Board;
(c) Execute vouchers for the disbursement of the money;
(d) Perform such other duties as the nature of the office requires and which are assigned to him or her by the Board; and

(e) Keep the records of the proceedings of the Board relating to the issuance, refusal, renewal, suspension or revocation of licenses to practice osteopathic medicine in the State.

1. The Executive Director or his or her designee:

(a) Shall review the application and accompanying materials submitted by an applicant to determine if there may be grounds for rejecting the application or grounds for denying the issuance of a license to the applicant; and

(b) May request the applicant to submit such additional evidence of the mental, physical, medical or other qualifications of the applicant as the Executive Director or the designee believes the Board may require.

2. Upon the completion of the review of an application by the Executive Director or the designee, the Executive Director shall:

(a) Schedule a hearing on the application at a meeting of the Board.

(b) Send written notice of the hearing to the applicant at least 21 days before the meeting. The notice must conform to subsection 2 of NRS 233B.121, be given by certified mail, postage prepaid, and be addressed to the last address furnished by the applicant. If the Executive Director has reason to believe that there are grounds for denying the issuance of a license to the applicant, the notice must include a short and plain statement that specifies each such ground.

(c) Provide a copy of the notice to each member of the Board.

3. The Board will deny the issuance of a license only after:

(a) Notice to the applicant specifying the precise grounds upon which the denial is proposed; and

(b) A hearing before the Board at which the applicant is given an opportunity to respond to each ground specified in the notice.

4. An applicant bears the burden of proving to the Board that issuing a license to him or her is in the best interest of the public health and safety and the general welfare of the people of this State.

5. As used in this section, “grounds for denying the issuance of a license” includes, without limitation:

(a) Any grounds authorized by a specific statute;

(b) Failure to fulfill any applicable statutory requirement;

(c) Submitting an application or accompanying material which is incomplete, incorrect or inconsistent, or which has been obtained by fraud, misrepresentation or mistake; and

(d) Engaging in any conduct that would, if committed by an osteopathic physician, be grounds for initiating disciplinary action pursuant to NRS 633.511.

1. A licensee with an inactive license may apply to have the license made active by submitting an application to the Board on a form provided by the Board.

2. The Executive Director or his or her designee shall review the application for completeness and may request that the applicant submit such additional evidence of the mental, physical, medical or other qualifications of the applicant as the Executive Director or his or her designee believes the Board may require.

3. Upon completion of the review of the application, the Executive Director shall:

(a) Place the application on an agenda at a regular meeting of the Board.

(b) Send written notice that the application will be reviewed by the Board to the applicant at least 21 business days before the meeting. The notice must conform to subsection 2 of NRS 233B.121, be given by certified mail, postage prepaid, and be addressed to the last address furnished by the applicant. If the Executive Director has reason to believe that there are grounds for denying the application, the notice must include a short and plain statement that specifies each such ground.

4. The applicant bears the burden of proving to the Board that making his or her license active is in the best interest of the public health and safety and the general welfare of the people of this State.

Special Licenses to Practice Osteopathic Medicine

NAC 633.271 Physician from adjoining state; resident enrolled in postgraduate training program; specified purposes; resident medical officer; professional employee of State or United States. (NRS 633.291, 633.401, 633.411)

1. The Board may issue a special license to any person designated in subsection 1 of NRS 633.401 and in subsection 1 of NRS 633.411 who applies for a special license and includes with his or her application a letter from the regulatory authority of the jurisdiction where he or she is licensed to practice osteopathic medicine which verifies that the applicant holds a current license.

2. In addition to the letter required by subsection 1, an applicant under NRS 633.411 must submit a letter from any one of the following persons requesting that he or she be given a special license:

(a) The chief of staff or the medical director of the hospital or institution where the applicant proposes to practice osteopathic medicine. The letter must also specify the members of the medical staff under whose supervision the applicant will practice. Any special license issued to the applicant will limit his or her practice to that hospital or institution.

(b) The chief of the medical agency proposing to employ the applicant to practice osteopathic medicine. The letter must also describe the scope of the services proposed to be performed by the applicant and the medical licensees under whose supervision the applicant will be employed. Any special license issued will limit the scope of the applicant's practice to those described in the letter and indicate the person under whose medical supervision the applicant will be employed.

(c) The osteopathic physician with whom the applicant proposes to associate. The letter must also state the specific period, not to exceed 1 year, and the specific purpose for which he or she proposes to associate the applicant, and must verify that the osteopathic physician will retain primary responsibility for the care of all patients seen by the applicant. Any special license issued to the applicant will specify the period of association, the services to be performed by the applicant and the osteopathic physician with whom the applicant is associated.

3. No special license issued by the Board is valid for a period longer than 1 year following the date of issuance.

4. A special license may be renewed from year to year by the Board upon receipt of an application which meets the requirements of NAC 633.250, is accompanied by the appropriate fee prescribed by NAC 633.335 and is received no later than 90 days before the expiration of the then current special license.

3. If the hearing concerns a disciplinary proceeding, the Board or a hearing officer or panel designated by the Board will preside over the hearing.

4. An electronic or stenographic record will be made of all contested hearings before the Board.

[Bd. of Osteopathic Med., Art. IX §§ 1-4, eff. 9-15-80] — (NAC A by R057-02, 10-24-2002; R208-05, 2-23-2006)

NAC 633.410 Rulings on preliminary matters. (NRS 633.291)

1. The Board, the President or the member of the Board, the hearing officer or the panel designated to preside over a hearing may issue rulings on all preliminary matters, including, without limitation, scheduling matters, protective orders, the admissibility of evidence, and other procedural or prehearing matters.

2. A ruling by the President, member of the Board, hearing officer or panel on a preliminary matter is subject to reconsideration by the entire Board upon the request of a Board member or the motion of a party.

3. The failure of a party who is affected by a ruling on a preliminary matter to move for reconsideration of the ruling does not constitute:

(a) Consent to the ruling; or

(b) Waiver of any objection previously made to the ruling.

4. For the purposes of this section, a matter is preliminary if it is not dispositive of a disciplinary proceeding or other contested case or a substantive issue therein.

NAC 633.420 Appearance and representation of parties. (NRS 633.291)

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, a party may appear at a hearing in person or by an attorney.

2. If the hearing concerns a contested case other than a disciplinary proceeding governed by chapter 622A of NRS, a party shall attend the hearing on the merits in person unless the President or presiding officer waives the requirement of the attendance of the party.

3. If a party who is required pursuant to subsection 2 to attend a hearing in person fails to do so without having obtained a waiver of the requirement of his or her attendance pursuant to subsection 2, the Board may:

(a) Determine that the failure to attend the hearing in person shall be deemed:

(1) An admission of all matters and facts contained in the record with respect to the party; and

(2) A waiver of the right to an evidentiary hearing; and

(b) Take action based upon such admission or upon any other evidence, including affidavits, without any further notice or a hearing.

4. If a party retains an attorney to represent him or her before the Board, the attorney shall so notify the Board not later than 10 days after being retained. Thereafter:

(a) The attorney shall sign all motions, oppositions, notices, requests and other papers, including requests for subpoenas; and

(b) The Board will serve all notices, motions, orders, decisions, and any other papers or pleadings upon the attorney.

5. An attorney appearing as counsel in any proceeding other than a disciplinary proceeding must be an attorney at law, admitted to practice and in good standing before the highest court of any state. If the attorney is not admitted and entitled to practice before the Supreme Court of Nevada, he or she must be associated with an attorney so admitted and entitled to practice.

6. An attorney appearing as counsel in a disciplinary proceeding shall comply with the provisions of NRS 622A.310.

NAC 633.430 Procedure at hearings. (NRS 633.291)

1. In a hearing other than a hearing concerning a disciplinary proceeding, the President or presiding officer will call the hearing to order and proceed to take the appearances on behalf of the Board, the applicant or the osteopathic physician or physician assistant. The legal counsel for the Board will present the evidence for the Board first and, if the Board allows closing arguments, will present the closing arguments for the Board first.

2. In a hearing concerning a disciplinary proceeding, the Board, hearing officer or panel shall conduct the hearing in accordance with the provisions of NRS 622A.380.

3. The notice of hearing, any petition, answer, response or written stipulation, and, if the hearing concerns a disciplinary proceeding, the complaint or any other responsive pleading, becomes a part of the record without being read into the record, unless a party requests that the document be read into the record.

4. The Board, President, presiding officer, hearing officer or panel may, at any time:

(a) Question a witness;

(b) Request or allow additional evidence, including additional rebuttal or documentary evidence;

(c) Make proposed opinions, findings of fact and conclusions of law;

(d) Issue appropriate interim orders;

(e) Recess the hearing as required; and

(f) Set reasonable limits of time for the presentation of testimony.

5. If closing briefs are permitted, the Board, President, presiding officer, hearing officer or panel shall establish a time frame for the submission of the closing briefs.

NAC 633.440 Proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law. (NRS 633.291)

1. The Board, President, hearing officer, panel or a member of the Board designated to preside over and conduct a hearing may require a party in any disciplinary proceeding or other contested case to file proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law at the close of the proceeding. The Board, President, hearing officer, panel or member of the Board shall fix the period within which the proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law must be filed.

2. Each proposed finding of fact and conclusion of law must be clearly and concisely stated and numbered. Each proposed finding of fact must specifically show, by appropriate reference to the transcript, the testimony that supports the finding.

3. The proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, accompanied by a certificate of service, must be filed by each party with the Board, President, hearing officer, panel or member of the Board, and one copy must be served upon each party to the proceeding.

Disciplinary Proceedings

NAC 633.450 Summary suspension of license by Board. (NRS 633.291, 633.651)

1. If a complaint has been filed against an osteopathic physician pursuant to NRS 633.531 or against a physician assistant pursuant to NAC 633.287, the Board may order the summary suspension of the license of the osteopathic physician or physician assistant pending disciplinary proceedings.

2. The Board will issue such an order if it determines that:
 - (a) The osteopathic physician or physician assistant has violated a provision of this chapter or chapter 633 of NRS;
 - (b) The summary suspension of the license is necessary to prevent a further violation of this chapter or chapter 633 of NRS; and
 - (c) The public health, safety or general welfare imperatively requires the summary suspension of the license.
3. An order summarily suspending a license:
 - (a) Must:
 - (1) Comply with the applicable provisions of NRS 233B.127; and
 - (2) Set forth the grounds upon which the order is issued, including a statement of facts;
 - (b) Is effective upon service on the osteopathic physician or physician assistant of the order and complaint; and
 - (c) Remains in effect until the Board:
 - (1) Modifies or rescinds the order; or
 - (2) Issues its final order or decision on the underlying complaint.
4. A hearing on the complaint must be held within 45 days after the effective date of the suspension.
(Added to NAC by Bd. of Osteopathic Med. by R057-02, eff. 10-24-2002; A by R192-07, 12-17-2008; R154-09, 10-15-2010)

NAC 633.454 Hearing officer or panel: Authority of Board; duties; findings and recommendations. (NRS 633.291, 633.660)

1. The Board may appoint a hearing officer or panel to preside over and conduct a hearing concerning a disciplinary proceeding in the manner set forth in chapter 622A of NRS.
2. If the Board appoints a hearing officer or panel pursuant to subsection 1, the Board may:
 - (a) Revoke the appointment and assume responsibility for presiding over and conducting the hearing; or
 - (b) Designate another hearing officer or panel to preside over and conduct the hearing.
3. If a hearing officer or panel presides over and conducts a hearing concerning a disciplinary proceeding, the hearing officer or panel shall, after the close of all evidentiary hearings, file with the Board and serve on each party to the hearing written findings and recommendations that include, without limitation:
 - (a) A proposed order;
 - (b) The findings of fact and conclusions of law of the hearing officer or panel;
 - (c) The reasons and bases for its findings of fact and conclusions of law; and
 - (d) The recommendations of the hearing officer or panel.
4. Pursuant to NRS 622A.300, the written findings and recommendations of a hearing officer or panel are subject to review by the entire Board.
5. Upon review of the written findings and recommendations of a hearing officer or panel, the Board may, subject to the provisions of NRS 233B.124 and subsection 5 of NRS 622A.300, approve, reject or modify the written findings and recommendations, in whole or in part, and may take any other action that the Board deems appropriate to resolve the case.

NAC 633.457 Hearing officer or panel: Rulings regarding admissibility of evidence; referral of matter to Board. (NRS 633.291)

1. In a disciplinary proceeding, a ruling made by a hearing officer or panel presiding over and conducting a hearing concerning the disciplinary proceeding regarding the admissibility of evidence is subject to review by the Board.
2. In extraordinary circumstances, when a prompt decision by the Board is necessary to promote substantial justice, the hearing officer or panel shall refer the matter to the Board for a determination and may recess the hearing pending the determination.
(Added to NAC by Bd. of Osteopathic Med. by R208-05, eff. 2-23-2006)

NAC 633.460 Meeting or conference of parties before hearing. (NRS 633.291)

1. The parties to a disciplinary proceeding shall meet or confer, not later than 20 days before the hearing, and:

(a) Exchange copies of all documents that each party intends to offer as evidence in support of its case.

(b) Identify, describe or produce all tangible things, other than documents, that each party intends to offer as evidence in support of its case and, if requested, arrange for the opposing party to inspect, copy, test or sample such evidence under reasonable supervision.

(c) Exchange written lists of persons that each party intends to call as witnesses in support of its case. The list must identify each witness by name and position and, if known, business address. If no business address is available, the party intending to call the witness shall disclose the home address of the witness or make the witness available for service of process. The list must also include, for each witness, a summary of the proposed testimony and the purpose for which the witness will be called.

2. As used in this section, "parties to a disciplinary proceeding" includes:

(a) An osteopathic physician who has been served with a formal complaint alleging a disciplinary violation pursuant to NRS 633.541 or a physician assistant who has been served with a formal complaint alleging a disciplinary violation pursuant to NAC 633.287;

(b) The attorney, if any, representing the osteopathic physician or physician assistant; and

(c) The legal counsel for the Board.

(Added to NAC by Bd. of Osteopathic Med. by R057-02, eff. 10-24-2002; A by R208-05, 2-23-2006; R192-07, 12-17-2008)

NAC 633.463 Prehearing conference. (NRS 633.291)

1. In a disciplinary proceeding, the Board, hearing officer or panel may, upon its own motion or a motion by a party, hold a prehearing conference not later than 10 days before a hearing concerning a disciplinary proceeding to:

(a) Formulate or simplify the issues involved in the proceeding;

(b) Obtain an admission of fact or stipulation of the parties;

(c) Arrange for the exchange of prefiled direct testimony of a witness ordered by the Board, hearing officer or panel;

(d) Limit the number of witnesses;

(e) Rule on any pending procedural motions, motions for discovery or motions for protective orders; or

(f) Establish any other procedure which may expedite the orderly conduct and disposition of the proceeding.

2. Notice of any prehearing conference must be provided to all parties to the disciplinary proceeding. Except as otherwise ordered for good cause shown, the failure of a party to attend a prehearing conference constitutes a waiver of any objection to the agreements reached or rulings made at the prehearing conference.

3. The actions taken and the agreements made at a prehearing conference:

(a) Must be made part of the record;

(b) Control the course of subsequent proceedings unless modified by the Board, hearing officer or panel; and

(c) Are binding upon the parties to the disciplinary proceeding and any person who subsequently becomes a party to the disciplinary proceeding.

(Added to NAC by Bd. of Osteopathic Med. by R208-05, eff. 2-23-2006)

NAC 633.466 Stipulations regarding facts in issue. (NRS 633.291)

1. With the approval of the Board, hearing officer or panel presiding over and conducting a hearing concerning a disciplinary proceeding, the parties to the disciplinary proceeding may stipulate as to any fact in issue, either by written stipulation introduced in evidence as an exhibit or by an oral statement made upon the record. The stipulation is binding only upon the parties so stipulating and is not binding upon the Board, hearing officer or panel.

2. A stipulation may be considered by the Board, hearing officer or panel as evidence at a hearing concerning the disciplinary proceeding. Notwithstanding the stipulation of the parties, the Board, hearing officer or panel may require proof of the facts stipulated to by independent evidence.

(Added to NAC by Bd. of Osteopathic Med. by R208-05, eff. 2-23-2006)

NAC 633.470 Osteopathic physicians: Action by Board after hearing. (NRS 633.291, 633.651) If the Board, after a hearing on the merits in a disciplinary proceeding, finds that the osteopathic physician is:

1. Not guilty as charged in the formal complaint, the Board will issue a final order dismissing the charges and notify the osteopathic physician that the charges have been dismissed.

2. Guilty as charged in the formal complaint, the Board may:

(a) Before agreeing on a punishment, consider all relevant factors, including, without limitation:

(1) The danger to the health or safety of the public from the violation;

(2) The economic benefit received by the osteopathic physician from the violation;

(3) Any mitigation or aggravation by the osteopathic physician of the effects of the violation;

(4) The extent to which the osteopathic physician demonstrates his or her good faith;

(5) Any previous history of violations by the osteopathic physician;

(6) Whether the osteopathic physician knew or, as a competent osteopathic physician, should have known that the action complained of violated a law, a regulation or a condition on his or her license;

(7) Whether the osteopathic physician has initiated remedial measures to prevent similar violations;

(8) The magnitude of penalties imposed on other osteopathic physicians for similar violations;

(9) The proportionality of the penalty in relation to the misconduct; and

(10) If the osteopathic physician offered evidence of mitigating factors, all such evidence.

(b) Agree on punishment that may, in addition to any sanction authorized pursuant to subsection 1 of NRS 633.651, require the osteopathic physician to:

(1) Participate in a program, approved by the Board, to correct alcohol or drug dependence or any other impairment;

(2) Practice only under supervision approved by the Board and paid for by the osteopathic physician;

(3) Perform public service approved by the Board without compensation;

(4) Submit to a physical or mental examination or a medical competency examination for the purposes of determining his or her fitness to practice osteopathic medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients;

(5) Fulfill certain training or educational requirements approved by the Board; and

(6) Pay all costs incurred by the Board relating to the disciplinary proceedings.

(c) Issue and serve on the osteopathic physician its final order.

(Added to NAC by Bd. of Osteopathic Med. by R057-02, eff. 10-24-2002; A by R192-07, 12-17-2008)

NAC 633.472 Physician assistants: Action by Board after hearing. (NRS 633.291, 633.434, 633.651) If the Board finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, and after notice and hearing in accordance with this chapter, that:

1. The charges in the complaint against a physician assistant are true, the Board will issue and serve on the physician assistant its written findings and any order of sanctions. The following sanctions may be imposed by order:

(a) Placement on probation for a specified period on any of the conditions specified in the order.

- (b) Administration of a public reprimand.
- (c) Limitation of the medical services that a physician assistant is authorized to perform.
- (d) Suspension of a license, for a specified period or until further order of the Board.
- (e) Revocation of a license.
- (f) A requirement that a physician assistant participate in a program to correct alcohol or other substance use disorder or any other impairment.
- (g) A requirement that there be additional and specified supervision of the medical services performed by a physician assistant.
- (h) A requirement that a physician assistant perform community service without compensation.
- (i) A requirement that a physician assistant take a physical or mental examination or an examination testing medical competence.
- (j) A requirement that a physician assistant fulfill certain training or educational requirements, or both, as specified by the Board.

2. No violation has occurred, the Board will issue a written order dismissing the charges and notify the physician assistant that the charges have been dismissed.

NAC 633.480 Decision or order by Board. (NRS 633.291, 633.651)

1. A decision or order in a disciplinary proceeding adverse to an osteopathic physician or physician assistant must:

- (a) Be in writing;
- (b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5 of NRS 233B.121, include findings of fact and conclusions of law; and
- (c) Specifically set forth the punishment imposed on the osteopathic physician or physician assistant.

2. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 633.671, an order of the Board is effective upon being served on the osteopathic physician or physician assistant.

(Added to NAC by Bd. of Osteopathic Med. by R057-02, eff. 10-24-2002; A by R192-07, 12-17-2008)

1. If a person whose practice of osteopathic medicine has been limited, or whose license to practice osteopathic medicine has been suspended, revoked or placed on inactive status, applies to the Board:

- (a) Pursuant to NRS 633.481 for the restoration of the revoked license;
 - (b) Pursuant to NRS 633.491 for the renewal of the license; or
 - (c) Pursuant to NRS 633.681 for the removal of the limitation or suspension or for the reinstatement of his or her revoked license,
- the Board may require the person to submit to an examination testing his or her competence to practice osteopathic medicine.

2. The Board will not remove a limitation or suspension or reinstate a revoked license unless:

- (a) The applicant proves by clear and convincing evidence that the requirements for the removal of the limitation or suspension or for the reinstatement of the revoked license have been met; and
- (b) The applicant proves by evidence satisfactory to the Board that he or she:
 - (1) Has complied with all the terms and conditions set forth in any final order of the Board limiting his or her practice or suspending or revoking his or her license; and
 - (2) Is capable of practicing osteopathic medicine in a safe manner.

The proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, accompanied by a certificate of service, must be filed by each party with the Board, President, hearing officer, panel or member of the Board, and one copy must be served upon each party to the proceeding. (Added to NAC by Bd. of Osteopathic Med. by R208-05, eff. 2-23-2006)	NRS §233B.121 and NRS §622A.390 both confirm the required contents of disciplinary orders in contested matters, in terms of findings of fact and conclusions of law. The identified regulation simply speaks to the handling of circumstances that are already contemplated within NRS Chapters 233B and 622A. Its elimination is of no significance to the Board's procedure for adjudication of contested cases.
NAC §633.450	NAC 633.450 Summary suspension of license by Board. (NRS 633.291, 633.651) 1. If a complaint has been filed against an osteopathic physician pursuant to NRS 633.531 or against a physician assistant pursuant to NAC 633.287, the Board may order the summary suspension of the license of the osteopathic physician or physician assistant pending disciplinary proceedings. 2. The Board will issue such an order if it determines that: (a) The osteopathic physician or physician assistant has violated a provision of this chapter or chapter 633 of NRS; (b) The summary suspension of the license is necessary to prevent a further violation of this chapter or chapter 633 of NRS; and (c) The public health, safety or general welfare imperatively requires the summary suspension of the license. 3. An order summarily suspending a license:	NRS §233B.127 and NRS §§633.577, 633.581, 633.591 and 633.601 all speak to the circumstance where an Osteopathic physician presents an imminent threat to public health, and the procedure to be followed in seeking a summary adjudication of that practitioner's ability to practice. Thus, the identified regulation simply speaks to the handling of circumstances that are already contemplated within NRS Chapters 233B and 633. Its elimination is of no significance to the Board's procedure for adjudication of contested cases.

	(a) Must: (1) Comply with the applicable provisions of NRS 233B.127; and (2) Set forth the grounds upon which the order is issued, including a statement of facts; (b) Is effective upon service on the osteopathic physician or physician assistant of the order and complaint; and (c) Remains in effect until the Board: (1) Modifies or rescinds the order; or (2) Issues its final order or decision on the underlying complaint. 4. A hearing on the complaint must be held within 45 days after the effective date of the suspension. (Added to NAC by Bd. of Osteopathic Med. by R057-02, eff. 10-24-2002; A by R192-07, 12-17-2008; R154-09, 10-15-2010)
NAC §633.454	NAC 633.454 Hearing officer or panel: Authority of Board; duties; findings and recommendations. (NRS 633.291, 633.660) 1. The Board may appoint a hearing officer or panel to preside over and conduct a hearing concerning a disciplinary proceeding in the manner set forth in chapter 622A of NRS. 2. If the Board appoints a hearing officer or panel pursuant to subsection 1, the Board may: (a) Revoke the appointment and assume responsibility for presiding over and conducting the hearing; or (b) Designate another hearing officer or panel to preside over and conduct the hearing. 3. If a hearing officer or panel presides over and conducts a hearing concerning a disciplinary proceeding, the hearing officer or panel shall, after the close of all evidentiary hearings, file with the Board and serve on each party to the hearing written findings and recommendations that include, without limitation: (a) A proposed order; (b) The findings of fact and conclusions of law of the hearing officer or panel; (c) The reasons and bases for its findings of fact and conclusions of law; and (d) The recommendations of the hearing officer or panel. 4. Pursuant to NRS 622A.300, the written findings and recommendations of a hearing officer or panel are subject to review by the entire Board.	NRS §§622A.300 – NRS 622A.410, as well as NRS §§233B.121 – NRS 233B.126 provide significant detail as to the manner in which contested hearings before the Board are to be conducted (i.e., who is to hear such hearings and how they are to be conducted, as well as the contents of orders following such hearings.) The identified regulation simply speaks to the handling of circumstances that are already contemplated within NRS Chapters 233B and 622A. Its elimination is of no significance to the Board’s procedure for adjudication of contested cases.

	5. Upon review of the written findings and recommendations of a hearing officer or panel, the Board may, subject to the provisions of NRS 233B.124 and subsection 5 of NRS 622A.300, approve, reject or modify the written findings and recommendations, in whole or in part, and may take any other action that the Board deems appropriate to resolve the case. (Added to NAC by Bd. of Osteopathic Med. by R208-05, eff. 2-23-2006)
NAC 633.457	NAC 633.457 Hearing officer or panel: Rulings regarding admissibility of evidence; referral of matter to Board. (NRS 633.291) 1. In a disciplinary proceeding, a ruling made by a hearing officer or panel presiding over and conducting a hearing concerning the disciplinary proceeding regarding the admissibility of evidence is subject to review by the Board. 2. In extraordinary circumstances, when a prompt decision by the Board is necessary to promote substantial justice, the hearing officer or panel shall refer the matter to the Board for a determination and may recess the hearing pending the determination. (Added to NAC by Bd. of Osteopathic Med. by R208-05, eff. 2-23-2006)	NRS §§622A.300 – NRS 622A.410, as well as NRS §§233B.121 – NRS 233B.126 provide significant detail as to the manner in which rulings on issues before the Board are to be handled. The identified regulation simply speaks to the handling of circumstances that are already contemplated within NRS Chapters 233B and 622A. Its elimination is of no significance to the Board’s procedure for adjudication of contested cases.

NAC 633.466	NAC 633.466 Stipulations regarding facts in issue. (NRS 633.291) 1. With the approval of the Board, hearing officer or panel presiding over and conducting a hearing concerning a disciplinary proceeding, the parties to the disciplinary proceeding may stipulate as to any fact in issue, either by written stipulation introduced in evidence as an exhibit or by an oral statement made upon the record. The stipulation is binding only upon the parties so stipulating and is not binding upon the Board, hearing officer or panel. 2. A stipulation may be considered by the Board, hearing officer or panel as evidence at a hearing concerning the disciplinary proceeding. Notwithstanding the stipulation of the parties, the Board, hearing officer or panel may require proof of the facts stipulated to by independent evidence. (Added to NAC by Bd. of Osteopathic Med. by R208-05, eff. 2-23-2006)	NRS §§622A.300 – NRS 622A.410, as well as NRS §§233B.121 – NRS 233B.126 provide significant detail as to the manner in which agreements on facts at issue in cases before the Board are to be handled.
